MRS. GARFIELD, WIFE OF THE FUEL ADMINISTRATOR

In the forefront of the large official family at Washington, D. C., is Mrs. Harry A. Garfield, wife of the Fuel Administrator, who, next to the President, is at the moment more in the public eye than almost any other man in the government service. Mrs. Garfield's latest photograph is here presented.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—Theo Pollak, Albert L. Fox and James Price, officials of the California District Defense League of the I. W. W. and Basil Saffaris, president of the Latin branch of the organization, are among the 55 persons indicted by the Federal grand jury on the charge of conspiring to hinder the war program.

They were tried and indicted at San Francisco.

SPAIN ANGRY OVER SINKING OF STEAMSHIP

Another Vessel Is Torpedoed by Germans and Papers Are Demanding Action.

MADRID, Feb. 11.—The Spanish steamer Sebastian was torpedoed while enroute to New York. It is believed here in official circles that a strong protest will be sent to Berlin by the Spanish government. News-papers in discussing the situation assert that they consider the case serious, and ask how long is the practice of sending Spanish shipping to the bottom by German submarines to be continued without bringing the matter to a head.

Shipment of Evening Dresses.

A large shipment of evening dresses of all colors and sizes arrived on the S.S. Jefferson and will be on sale with the rest of our evening gowns at one-half price.
